

KOUA DOGWOOD

Cornus kousa

Description

Bloom occurs in late spring. The “flower” is 3-5” across. Flowers are followed by berry-like fruits. A stunning flowering tree with good fall color. Plant as a specimen or in small groups, preferably in partial shade.

Information

CATEGORY	Deciduous
GROWTH RATE	Average
ADAPTABILITY	Full sun to partial shade
SHAPE	Vase or Rounded
SIZE	15-30' tall, 15-30' wide

Seasonal value

Fall color is red-purple. Beautiful cream to yellowish flowers in the late spring and red/pink berry-like fruits in the late summer.